

CP PLUS Shines as Emerging Global Leader, Receives Prestigious National Skills Award

In a resounding acknowledgment of its unwavering commitment to excellence, innovation, and global leadership in the security solutions domain, CP PLUS proudly clinched the coveted Emerging Global Organisation of the Year Award at the National Skills Awards for Eminence 2024.

Bestowed by the Electronics Sector Skill Council of India, this accolade marks a significant milestone in CP PLUS' journey, affirming its position as a trailblazer in the industry.

The Electronics Sector Skill Council of India, recognizing CP PLUS as an emerging force on the global stage, conferred the prestigious award in acknowledgment of the company's transformative impact and pioneering contributions to safety and security. The ceremony, held at Bharat Mandapam as the most glittering event, witnessed industry leaders, government officials, and esteemed professionals applaud CP PLUS for its outstanding achievements.

Mr. Aditya Khemka, Managing Director of CP PLUS, expressed his elation, stating, "This triumph adds yet another feather to CP PLUS' cap, reinforcing our aim to prevail across every industry segment on a global scale. Amidst a landscape of challenges, CP PLUS has consistently risen to the occasion, delivering cutting-edge solutions that redefine the standards of security and surveillance worldwide. This achievement reflects not only our success but also our dedication to shaping a safer, more secure future for all."

The Emerging Global Organisation of the Year Award is a testament to CP PLUS' global impact, recognizing the company's commitment to pushing the boundaries of innovation and excellence. CP PLUS has consistently demonstrated its prowess in developing advanced security solutions that cater to the evolving needs of diverse industries, setting a benchmark for others to follow.

The award ceremony highlighted CP PLUS' remarkable contributions to the field of security and surveillance, showcasing the company's ability to adapt to changing landscapes and deliver solutions that meet the highest standards. CP PLUS' dedication to shaping a safer future resonated with the ethos of the National Skills Awards for Eminence, which celebrates organizations that not only excel in their respective fields but also contribute significantly to skill development and innovation.

As an Emerging Global Organisation of the Year, CP PLUS stands as a beacon of inspiration for the industry. The company's commitment to global leadership, innovation, and excellence serves as a testament to its vision of creating safer and more secure environments worldwide.
